Trevor Sanderford Sharing the Gospel at the Bus Station

When God Sends a Timothy

Meet my Timothy, Trevor Sanderford

And he gave...the evangelists...to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ. ~ Ephesians 4:11-12

One of my jobs as an evangelist, according to the Word, is to equip the saints for the work of the ministry. Throughout my ministry, I have had the privilege of working with adults, college students, seminary students, and even senior saints to do just that. This time, God sent me Trevor Sanderford, a 16 year old high school sophomore.

A mutual friend, Mr. Gary Jewell, connected us. Gary goes to the same Friday Men's Fellowship meeting I go to nearly every Friday. He approached me one day and said, "I have..."

a young man you need to meet.” He told me about this teenager at his church that was always sharing the gospel with people every where he went. Gary said that he and I had a similar zeal for the Lord. I called him on the phone and we hit it off right away.

I asked him to join me for the St. Patrick’s Day Parade outreach in downtown Raleigh. He jumped in as if he had done this all his life. He was handing out tracts and witnessing one-to-one like a man on fire. Trevor has the heart but also has a lot to learn. That is why God brought him to me.

While he was on Spring break, he joined me for our campus outreach at NC State and for our weekly outreach at the bus station. He was engaging the college students with no fear. He also preached and gave his testimony at the bus station for the first time. Trevor did very well.

One thing that Trevor has asked me to do is to help him establish a “First Priority” club on his high school campus. I will serve as the campus coach and we hope to launch next school year at South Garner High School. Would you pray for the Lord to fully open the door for that ministry?

Trevor will be joining me at Spring and Summer outreaches in downtown Raleigh as his schedule allows. I look forward to teaching him the basics of street evangelism as we go. Please pray for him as the Lord brings him to your mind.
